

Vice President, Finance and Operations Junior Achievement of British Columbia (JABC) Vancouver, British Columbia

Reporting directly to the President & CEO, the Vice President of Finance and Operations is a senior leader with organizational authority, acting as a strategic advisor to the CEO and a key contributor to JABC's success. This role oversees financial management, operational efficiency, and organizational infrastructure, ensuring that JABC remains mission-driven, financially sustainable, and operationally effective. The VP is a thoughtful and forward-thinking professional who collaborates with cross-functional teams and supports other areas within JABC's Functional Framework to drive organizational growth and impact.

The ideal candidate is a collaborative, innovative and purpose-driven senior finance and corporate services leader. A strategic thinker who looks beyond the pure numbers and sees opportunities while working in tandem with the CEO and leadership team in articulating a pathway to work with key donors, sponsors and partners. The incumbent will bring a track record of success as a hands-on financial executive with a not-for-profit, public or private sector organization where operational efficiencies and financial management have been key aspects of the role. Beyond the requisite technical financial skills and abilities, the ideal candidate is a compassionate and engaging individual with solid relationship and interpersonal skills.

The targeted salary range for this position is $150,000 to $160,000 annually, supplemented by a competitive total rewards package.
