Remote

This is an incredible opportunity to join an established technology business that is scaling rapidly and evolving into their next phase of growth. As the CTO you will provide leadership to a specialized team that develops and maintains competitive and innovative cloud-based solutions for financial institutions. Reporting directly to the President & CEO you are responsible for the overall technology platform of the company and are instrumental in assessing the strategy and vision for the development of the next platform. You will guide the organization towards continued product growth, strengthen operational capacity and effectiveness and help capitalize on global market opportunities.

The CTO will create an organizational environment that stimulates the morale, creativity and productivity of the development team, and will provide vision, support and guidance for the organization on the development and integration of technology for its customers.

The ideal candidate will possess a keen understanding of modern software development processes and methodologies and a track record of building better functionality and performance into client solutions. A big picture thinker, you will distil a vision down into practical applications and support a team in fulfilling that vision. As CTO, you will be a confident communicator, comfortable and skilled at presenting to a wide range of audiences. In addition, you are a skilled leader who has experience managing a professional team, providing coaching, support and development opportunities that will enable the organization to thrive.

If this is the next step in your professional career, please visit our website and submit your application to Shaun Carpenter and Suchin Pawa at www.pfmsearch.com.
