

Chief Executive Officer Health & Home Care Society of BC Vancouver, BC

Replacing a long-serving leader who has been with the organization since 2001, this is a pivotal time for a new Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to join Care BC and support the organization as it sets a vision for the future of the organization that includes a brand-new respite centre on the North Shore due to open in 2025.

The CEO is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the organization's operations including fundraising, program development, financial management, and staff supervision. Reporting to the Board of Directors, they will ensure the organization is fulfilling its mission and serving the community effectively. A strong advocate for the organization, the CEO will promote awareness of programs and goals and will also be responsible for cultivating and maintaining mutually beneficial relationships with key external partners including donors, funders, and community leaders. The CEO will work closely and collaboratively with the Board to guide strategy for the organization, providing institutional knowledge and context for new and returning Board members, and will effectively lead the staff and volunteer teams to ensure operational priorities and objectives are being met. As a mentor to staff, the CEO will motivate and empower the team to achieve their best work.

As the ideal candidate you are an experienced, credible, and reliable professional who is passionate about Care BC's mission. In addition to your operational experience, you are a motivational leader who inspires others to engage with Care BC's mission and vision, able to balance short-term needs with long-term planning. You are an excellent communicator who is able to represent and advocate for Care BC to a variety of audiences, supporting the team in providing culturally-appropriate services to a highly diverse clientele. You bring an understanding of BC's healthcare system and are known as a strong collaborator, community builder, and administrator, with a track record in raising funds. You have ideally have run all aspects of an organization and worked closely with Boards of Directors to guide strategy development and set priorities. Your leadership experience in healthcare is preferably augmented by a Master's Degree in Nursing.

Since 1898, the Health & Home Care Society of BC (Care BC) has taken care of British Columbians through healthcare initiatives tailored to the communities it serves. An independent, BC-based not-for-profit organization, Care BC continues this tradition of caring today with preventive and supportive health services that keep people healthy and in the comfort of their own homes and communities. Guided by its mission to provide health promotion and supportive care services to communities in British Columbia, Care BC's charitable programs – Meals on Wheels, Family Respite Centre, and Community Integration Project – focus on supporting seniors, caregivers, and other people at risk of isolation.
