

Managing Director, Student Affairs

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver, BC

As a member of the Vice-President, Students Leadership Team, the Managing Director, Student Affairs, is responsible for the strategic direction and oversight of a wide range of units and programs that are responsible for building, transforming, and enhancing UBC student engagement and experience on the Vancouver campus. The position provides strategic leadership for student experiences on the UBC Vancouver campus. The incumbent establishes over-arching priorities and commitments for the Student Affairs unit, aligned with the UBC Student Strategic Plan as well as other priorities for students. The Managing Director leads strategic initiatives designed to advance inclusive excellence, enhance student success, and ensure access to meaningful learning experiences, supporting all students to achieve their academic, personal, and career goals. Specifically, the Managing Director is responsible for the oversight of the Centre for Accessibility, the Centre for Community Engaged Learning, the Centre for Student Development and Leadership, Sexual Violence and Prevention Office, and International Student Development.

The ideal candidate is a highly visible and dynamic student affairs professional who will be engaged in supporting a vibrant and well-resourced department. As an inclusive leader, the Managing Director will ensure an accessible and welcoming environment for all students and be focused on eliminating systemic barriers that may prevent full student participation. The Managing Director will use a collaborative approach in the development of student affairs strategic plans, policies and programs and will ensure the department embodies the institution's core values in their implementation. With experience overseeing a similarly complex and diverse portfolio, the Managing Director is committed to supporting student success and well-being both on and off campus. The Managing Director will have an expressed commitment and experience with equity-deserving student populations and experience fostering environments and advocating for equity, diversity, and inclusions of all students.
